SUSTAINABILITY WITH LAMY

It is not sufficient to simply talk about responsibility. It is about accepting responsibility – ecologically, economically and socially. In this sense, Lamy wants to be judged on its actions.

Dealing responsibly with ecological, economic and social resources is a central topic at Lamy. Integrated quality and environmental management systems ensure that the entire value creation chain is continuously monitored and optimised.

Ecological

Materials and manufacturing processes are decisively tested for environmental compatibility. Residual and working materials are recycled separately and the consumption of primary energy and water is reduced to the bare essentials.

Economic

The finished products are especially durable – to this day, Lamy does not produce any writing instruments as disposable products. In the event of damage, all writing instruments can be repaired.

Social

Long-standing collaborations with employees, suppliers and business partners, a trusting work environment and its connection to Heidelberg make Lamy a pioneer in social sustainability.
